WHEREAS, Reading is both a practical tool and a magic power: practical because it is the most basic skill for participating in our modern world; magic because of the doors it opens to ideas and imagination, its miraculous ability to transport us to faraway places or long-distant times; and,

WHEREAS, The United States is in the midst of a reading crisis, a critically large and growing percentage of American children lack the ability to read a want ad or traffic sign; and

WHEREAS, The State of South Dakota recognizes the efforts of Reading is Fundamental (RIF) projects to motivate children to read:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim October, 1979, as in South Dakota in recognition of the efforts of all RIF projects to motivate children to read and in observance of the International Year of the Child.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Eleventh Day of May, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-Nine
